There is no media been added to the blog and therefore I can only assume it is linked from somewhere, I can remove this if I can get any information at all about where it is or what it is – I have removed [REDACTED] rights to the blog just now which I hope is the right thing to do

Has Alan spoken to you? There's a highly racist film placed recently it needs to be deleted. He saw it today so can describe it to you
Thanks
